Protective Case with Strap

Wi-UPCS

For use with Wii U GamePad

For Wii U

The protective case for the Wii U GamePad controller features a comfortable and shock absorbent design with access to all controls and ports. An adjustable neck strap is included for added support and protection, so it won't get dropped and you can comfortably carry the GamePad without using your hands. Just let it hang while you pause and take a rest or do other things and then quickly get back in the game.

Features Include:
- Shock absorbent protective case
- Adjustable neck strap / lanyard
- Open access to ports and controls
